The Senate referred the matter of suspending education for 2.5 (two and a half) workdays on September 21-22-23, 2015 prior to the Feast of Sacrifice starting at 1.00 P.M. on September 23, 2015.

The Senate unanimously decided that education would be suspended for 2.5 (two and a half) workdays on September 21-22-23, 2015, and that all classes of the associate, undergraduate and post-graduate programs (except for the students of the Faculties of Medicine and Dentistry at the health services unit) would be cancelled providing that make-up classes would be held.